Songs of Glory: Stories of 300 Great Hymns and Gospel Songs William J. Reynolds

This is a remarkable compilation of hymns, ranging from English translations of Latin hymns of the early church to contemporary Christian songs of this decade. Each of the 300 selections begins with the first stanza of the hymn & is followed by a story. The stories, containing little known, pertinent information, describe the occasions or experiences that prompted the writing of the hymns & the individuals who wrote, arranged, recorded, & preserved them
