Tonya's had a rough day. Her boss has given her grief all day and to make matters worse she's late to her brother's birthday party. Could her day get any worse? She slips into a cab only to find the driver is young and handsome. Just when she starts to think things are looking up, her bad day strikes again. Her sexy cabbie has just the solution for her though if she's bold enough to take it... Kevin thinks it's just another day on the road as a New York City cabbie. That all changes when a breathless, sexy business woman slides into his cab. Attracted to her from the start, he takes her on a long ride through the country only to find out that she has a problem that maybe only he can help her with. He makes her an offer that might just change her life... This book takes you on a thrill ride that is bound to leave you breathless and panting for more. Does Tonya take the risk? What does our young cabbie have in store for her? The story is full of surprises that lands both of these very consenting adults in a very compromising situation. Is it attraction or simply a business transaction? Decide for yourself and get caught up for a ride in one wild and sexy taxi!
