Diamond's Angel: Against all odds Amy X Bryce

This book begins in the prison setting, where a convicted man meets and has a chance to gain his freedom from meeting the woman of his dreams. Angel is a legal aid and volunteer at Free Spirit correctional Facility outside of Palesdale Canada. She is assigned to obtain the information and help from Diamond Wade. Their meeting is mind blowing to both them, but they must work together to win against the local drug lord and his cartel. Two people from completely different walks of life, taking on the head monster of organized crime. Will they be able to make it happen? Will they survive the war, that they will have to start to win the battle? Is there such a thing as happily ever after?
