El vagabundo de las estrellas (Otras Latitudes nº 38) (Spanish Edition) Jack London

El vagabundo de las estrellas es la última novela que escribió Jack London. Es una feroz crítica de la tortura y de la pena de muerte, y una metáfora del placer emancipador de la lectura.

Convicto por asesinato en la cárcel de San Quintín, Darrell Standing es sometido al castigo adicional de verse inmovilizado en una terrible camisa de fuerza. El tormento físico le dará acceso a otro plano de existencia en el cual puede recorrer sus vidas pasadas.

La historia se desarrolla en 1913 y la novela es tan actual que no podemos sino estremecernos al leer uno de sus últimos párrafos: «He oído que Europa está en crisis desde hace dos años, y que hubo despidos masivos, y que ahora les llega el turno a los Estados Unidos. Eso significa que pronto puede haber una crisis económica, tal vez un ataque de pánico financiero, y que habrá más parados el próximo invierno, y que las colas del pan serán largas...».

Por todo ello esta novela, formada por los relatos de las diferentes vidas de su protagonista, es un homenaje a la imaginación y a su enorme poder de evasión.

«Pocas obras literarias son tan capaces como esta de hacernos sentir físicamente, casi dolorosamente, el peso de lo que nos encadena y el poderío de lo que nos hace infinitos. Ahora la releo y envidio a los jóvenes que vayan a conocerla por primera vez»

Fernando Savater
